

Surgical Video Abstract

Your surgical video abstract will be reviewed by the Abstract Review Committee.

Video submission deadline is August 1, 2024. It will be submitted exclusively via the online portal at <https://sprv.info/en/abstracts> Guidelines on submitting videos can be found here.

Video Submission Guidelines

- All surgical video abstracts must be submitted exclusively via the online abstract submission system <https://sprv.info/en/abstracts> Submissions by any other means will NOT be accepted.
- Late submissions will NOT be considered.
- Producer – The person submitting the video will be considered the producer. A maximum of 2 co-producers per video are permitted. Each producer can submit up to 2 videos, while the limit of participation as a co-producer is for another 2 videos.
- Video producer will be notified of the abstract selection results by email no later than August 15, 2024.
- Video producers who are accepted for video presentation MUST register for the SRPV Congress. Early Bird rates will not be honored after September 1, 2024.
- Acceptance of a video invitation constitutes a commitment to register for and attend the meeting in-person. Your video will not be included in the program unless we receive your invitation acceptance.
- Please provide a corresponding e-mail address of the producer. Abstract submission results and abstract-related correspondence will be sent by email to the submitting author. The submitting author must include contact information for all coauthors.
- Successfully submitted videos will be acknowledged with an electronic receipt including a reference number, which should be quoted in all future correspondence. If you do not receive the acknowledgment within 24 hours upon submission, please contact the Abstract committee at info@sprv.info
- Submissions will be assessed and reviewed through a masked peer-review process and graded regarding content and quality. The Selection Committee's decision is final.
- SPRV Congress holds the copyright to all the materials presented at the Congress.

Video Instructions

1. The Video TITLE must be concise and not exceed 120 characters. Avoid using abbreviations in the title or including irrelevant information. The title must be formatted as follows: initial letter must be capital, except for the minor words; do not underline, italicize or use bold characters.

2. The maximum length of video is 2 minutes.
3. Videos must be formatted in MPEG or Quicktime (MOV).
4. h264 compression, do not use DivX compression.
5. If there will be text or narration, the accepted language is English.
6. Relevant financial disclosures must be reported, if applicable to any of the abstract's authors.
7. Videos with a clear promotion of a commercial product will not be considered for inclusion in the meeting.
8. The submitting author holds all responsibility for ensuring the permission to use images contained in the video, as well as for ensuring that no copyright laws will be infringed.